WHO IS FRITZ?

German born Fritz Wiessner was a rock climbing pioneer. At the age of 12, Fritz began to make his mark free climbing. Most famously, at 25, Fritz was the first to ascend Fleischbank in Tyrol, Austria, known as the most challenging rock climb of that time. His legendary adventures took him from Austria to K2, and eventually to Stowe, Vermont in the 1950s, where for a period of time Fritz called The Stowehof home. After his death at age 88, his wife Muriel donated 79 acres of land on Edson Hill, preserved by the Stowe Land Trust, now called the "Wiessner Woods". If you listen closely while walking through the Wiessner Woods trails, you just might hear his triumphant yodels echoing around the hills.
