The Summit Hotel Set to Inspire with Innovative & Artful Offerings; Initial Move-in Underway

The Summit, Cincinnati's first Dolce hotel, is nearing the home stretch as final construction work commences and the hotel's leadership team takes occupancy of their offices within the hotel. With an opening date of April 17 just around the corner, managers and executives began moving into their hotel office space this week.

Save the date for your exclusive first peek of The Summit on April 11, 9:30 – 11 a.m.

Fit and finish work is well underway, with delivery and installation of furniture and fixtures arriving almost daily. The hotel's offices - located on the first and second floors of the nine-story building - are now complete. The rest of the hotel remains hard hat only.

Work continues on the hotel's feature areas, including its restaurants:

- The Overlook Kitchen + Bar, located adjacent to the 15,000 square foot Rooftop Terrace, replete with cozy seating, firepits and cornhole;
- Brew & Barrel, located near the nine-story atrium and serving top-tier coffee and bakery breakfasts in the morning and craft brews and small plates in the evening to locals and hotel guests alike; and
- The Market, the hotel's interactive chef-to-guest breakfast and Sunday brunch spot.

Additional inspiring spots under construction include the Modern Library, featuring billiards; the Monumental Staircase in the Atrium; and the Art Gallery, a soaring space featuring curated art that will be available to tour and as the backdrop for weddings and events.

Construction is also well underway in the hotel's 34,500 square feet of state-of-the-art meeting space, featuring natural light and ergonomic seating. Especially tantalizing to meeting goers will be The Summit's Nourishment Hubs™. These protein-filled and vegan-friendly outposts are unique to Dolce hotels. Meeting goers can select from items ranging from high-protein snacks, vegan-friendly items, fresh produce and low-glycemic tidbits to fun options that spark conversation, like s'mores bars with marshmallows made from scratch.

A ribbon cutting for The Summit will be held in mid-April.
