Your Hotel Should Be as Extraordinary as Your Vacation

Introducing: “Queen City Experience. The Summit Hotel Inspiration.”

MADISONVILLE, Ohio (June 23, 2022) – As summer plans ramp up, Cincinnati is making more vacationers sit up and take note. Easy to get to, easy to navigate, and saturated with food, music, events, and attractions ranging from world-class museums and amusements to concert headliners, the “Queen City” was recently named a Top 10 U.S. summer vacation destination.

A vacation should start the moment you check into your hotel room, and an inspiring summer vacation demands much more than a bed and a bath. The Summit, a AAA Four Diamond and Condé Nast Readers’ Choice Award hotel, beckons you to make a summer getaway where no detail is overlooked.

The Summit Hotel is pleased to offer a series that includes all the planning you need to have an exciting summer vacation — from amazing summer concerts to hidden gem dining experiences — and it starts and ends with a hotel experience you’ll never forget. (Don’t leave Buddy behind, either. Dogs are always welcome at The Summit Hotel.)

Peruse the menu offerings of the “Queen City Experience. Summit Hotel Inspiration.” to find a category that meets your interests or pick and choose to create an experience that’s all your own. All concerts are this summer at the famed Riverbend Music Center:

- Country Music Fans can enjoy superstar performances including Keith Urban, Zach Brown Band, Chris Stapleton, and Jason Aldean.
 - Enjoy meals at Bee’s Barbecue, Delwood, or Swampwater Grill.
 - Relax at The Summit’s Overlook Kitchen + Bar with nightly specials like tapas or burgers, and a Blue Jean Baby cocktail.
 - Kick back with cornhole and a pint at Madtree Brewing or enjoy a custom tour with Cincy Brewbus.
- Timeless Music Fans can rock the night away with Jimmy Buffett in the very spot where partying Parrotheads originated and continue their legendary commitment to Margaritaville. Or sing along with familiar favorites by Steely Dan, Matchbox Twenty, the Doobie Brothers or Rod Stewart.
 - Enjoy iconic Cincinnati dining spots like Zip’s Café, E+O Kitchen or Eli’s Barbeque.
 - Take a short drive to Alms Park and revel in the soaring views or enjoy a delicious picnic. A stroll around the historic Village of Mariemont is a great way to enjoy a scoop of Graeter’s ice cream and a summer popcorn flick at the Mariemont Theatre.
 - Unwind with rooftop yoga on the Terrace of the Summit Hotel.

- Family Fun Fans can revel in all Cincinnati and The Summit Hotel has to offer. Start with concerts for everyone at Riverbend, including Backstreet Boys, OneRepublic, Imagine Dragons, and “Encanto: the Singalong Movie Concert.”
 - Kids and adults alike will love eating at Cincinnati favorites like Skyline Chili, Dewey’s Pizza, and 50 West Brewing Company, where burgers, beers, shakes and fries meet sand volleyball courts on the banks of the Little Miami River.
 - Celebrate the 50th anniversary of King’s Island amusement park with a jaw-dropping nightly fireworks show that includes drones and narration by actor Barry Williams (in a nod to the filming of The Brady Bunch at King’s Island in 1972).
 - Indulge kids (or the kid at heart) with a scavenger hunt around the art-filled Summit Hotel: how many colors can you find in the soaring 9-story atrium? Who can be the first to spot the tv inside the refrigerator? Who will win at shuffleboard and billiards?

“We’ve always been committed to providing a hotel experience designed to inspire memories and stories long after you return home. Pairing a stay at The Summit Hotel with the extraordinary experiences you can find in Cincinnati is a recipe for a special getaway. We invite our guests to settle into a beautiful guest suite, explore our expansive spaces such as the Library or Gallery, relax on the Rooftop Terrace, or enjoy a coffee or cocktail by the fireplace at Brew & Barrel. We love seeing our guests take photos against our murals and in the soaring Atrium, or stay focused on their health in our light-filled fitness center,” says Denise Bayless, general manager of The Summit Hotel.
