Race takes place April 22. Proceeds benefit United Pet Fund.

MADISONVILLE, Ohio (April 14, 2023) – Pups and humans alike are welcome and invited to The Summit Hotel on Saturday, April 22. Join in a 5K and one-mile Dog Jog celebrating The Summit's 5th anniversary. While dogs are certainly not required for entry, they have been at the heart of The Summit's planning.

The race begins at 9 a.m. at The Summit and the course takes participants through the grounds of Madison Square and into Madisonville. Registration benefits United Pet Fund (UPF) and includes a shirt and post-race snack and drink with your race entry. Doggie bandanas are also available for purchase so the pups can stroll in style.

"We're looking forward to this special 5th anniversary celebration," says Denise Bayless, general manager. "As a dog-friendly hotel, we knew we wanted people to be able to bring their furry friends for some family fun. We're excited to host 10 fantastic vendors who provide great products and services for the community."

Visit the Gallery at The Summit Hotel for pre- and post-race celebrations. The Summit selected a variety of vendors loved by pets and their humans. Chat with representatives from Mission Vet Urgent Care in Blue Ash, Pet Supplies Plus – Symmes, Animal Ark Pet Resort, OrangeTheory Fitness, Puppyhead Products, Fred's Mission Rescue, Pugalicious Pet Treats, Fetch Pet Care, Walk By Faith Tees and the Care Center Animal Blood Bank.

Since opening its doors on April 17, 2018, the hotel has become one of Cincinnati's leading independent hotels — nourishing guests through chef-driven cuisine, thoughtful art exhibitions, and providing a space for businesses and organizations to host inspiring meetings and events. The Summit also welcomes your four-legged friends to stay with you, up to two medium dogs per room.
