
Wyndham Grand Clearwater Beach Appoints Spa Director Lindsey Sappenfield

April 25, 2019 3:03pm

CLEARWATER, F.L. (April 25, 2019) – Located alongside Florida’s top-rated sugar white sand beach, Wyndham Grand Clearwater Beach announces the appointment of Lindsey Sappenfield as Spa Director of the hotel’s Pallavi Luxury Spa. In this position, she will manage and lead the operational and strategic performance of the 6,000-square-foot spa.

Sappenfield has more than 15 years of experience in the spa industry as a licensed massage therapist and esthetician, and will bring her expertise in spa operations and luxury treatments to Pallavi Spa’s team of world-class therapists. Prior to joining Wyndham Grand Clearwater Beach, Sappenfield served as the assistant spa director at the storied Don CeSar in St. Pete Beach. With a deep passion for wellness, she has additionally held positions in spas across the US including Waihua Spa at The Ritz-Carlton Kapalua, Hawaii, Heavenly Spa at The Westin Ka’anapali, Hawaii and the spa at Waldorf Astoria Orlando. Sappenfield holds degrees from Ashmead College of Massage Therapy and Spa Luna School for Esthetics.

"We are thrilled to welcome Lindsey to our leadership team," said David Yamada, General Manager of Wyndham Grand Clearwater Beach. "Her deep-rooted expertise in luxury spa operations will provide our guests and local community members creative experiences supporting lasting health and beauty benefits."

Pallavi Luxury Spa features six private treatment rooms, a couples’ suite with dual massage tables, a couples’ spa tub and experience shower and a full menu of curated treatments. Pallavi, meaning new leaf, is the destination’s exclusive provider of HyrdaFacials and Salt Therapy treatments.
