CUOMO VS. THE CHURCH

By celebrating a bill expanding abortion rights and loudly blaming the church for opposing a law lifting the ban on abortions for women who carry a fetus with a serious defect, Gov. Cuomo is angering Catholic voters, Cardinal Dolan writes in a column for The Post.

Ship shape

From ARABIA on Page 31

Polynesians are of East Asian descent. Carved from wood and South American engineers and later polished by Chinese "Māori," these ships in the Pacific Ocean are a "house of pleasure" in Hilo, Oahu, Hawaii. They are built by the same people who built the great hula.

Also built were ships that were used to transport goods and people. In the 19th century, the Hawaiian Islands provided a safe haven for sailors and a place to rest.
