

50 Top Honeymoon Destinations: The Best Ideas and Places

Invitations. Guest lists. Tuxedo styles. Menus. Music. Themes. Vows. The ring. Whether to invite your old girlfriend and annoying Aunt Martha (that's a no on the girlfriend, by the way). Wedding planning is overwhelming. But your honeymoon, well, that's your reward — the grand finale. The trip marks the first day of the rest of your lives — and you want to do it right. We're here to help.

Below, we've compiled a list of worldwide vacations to fit every budget, every dream, and every inclination. From a wine lover's hideaway in Argentina to a hot springs-brimming road trip through Colorado; from a gorilla-trekking adventure in Rwanda to cavorting ethically with elephants in Thailand, a private island in Cambodia, a Lord of the Rings homage in New Zealand, a yoga refuge in Bali and a cliff-side villa in Dominica. Gaze at the Taj Mahal in India or look an iguana in the eye in the Galápagos. Truffle hunts in Tuscany? Skiing in Switzerland? Walking with a shaman in Machu Picchu? Sure! Sleep in a lighthouse in Ireland, a palace in Paris, a tent in Yellowstone, an ice hotel in Sweden, or a villa in Greece.

Whatever you're thinking, you'll find it here. Go ahead. Just one more decision — then you're done.

Best Remote Beaches

Zemi Beach House

Shoal Bay East, Shoal Bay Village 2640, Anguilla

With 33 perfect beaches, Anguilla makes choosing a favorite crescent of sand impossible. Laid-back but graceful, sophisticated but casual, bean-shaped Anguilla has stellar restaurants, unforgettable sunsets, convivial locals, and stunning, blue seas. Only accessible by private plane or sea shuttle from St. Maarten, with cruise ship business limited to small luxury liners, it projects a more tranquil and less developed vibe than neighboring islands. Take a glass-bottom boat to Sandy Island for the day, have lunch at Shoal Bay, listen to music at the famous Dune Bar — these are all must-do Anguilla moments. Book in at Zemi Beach House, a secluded waterfront spot on a pink-tinted crescent at Shoal Bay East. Its glamorous rooms, four pools, two restaurants, holistic spa and Rhum Room seal the deal. Prices start at $775 per night. (Photo courtesy of Zemi Beach House)
