

February 20, 2020

For many couples, their honeymoon is the single most significant vacation they'll ever take together. So of course awe-inspiring destinations like the Maldives, Fiji and Bora Bora will always rank high on the list of honeymoon hot spots, as will glamorous cities such as Paris, Kyoto and Venice. And while places like Bolivia and Switzerland may not be the first destinations that come to mind, you may want to reconsider after reading this list of couples-worthy locales that are currently rising in popularity. Here are 9 trending honeymoon locales that should be on your radar if saying "I do" in 2020.

Anguilla

Sandy Ground Bay, Anguilla, English West Indies

With a record breaking 73,633 bookings in 2019 (their highest number to date since they started recording tourism data 27 years ago), the British Overseas Territory of Anguilla shows no signs of slowing down. Why would they? With tranquil blue waters, pristine powdery stretches of sand, plus adventure, gastronomy and wellness options galore, the Eastern Caribbean island is an adult playground. As for where to check in to celebrate your newly minted nuptials, there's 76-room Zemi Beach House & Spa (located right on Shoal Bay Beach), as well as the must-see villa Altamer (Antilles Pearl) on Anguilla's West End. Zemi's Celebration Suite also boasts a private terrace and plunge pool overlooking the ocean, so you'll be able to soak up epic sunsets as you relax on your own rooftop oasis. Pro tip: To avoid hurricane season and take advantage of great deals, visit May through August.