

Caribbean Journal

A Major Reopening in Anguilla

By the Caribbean Journal staff

In the latest step for Anguilla's comeback from Hurricane Irma, its hottest hotel is reopening this week.

two and three-bedroom penthouse suites.

Amenities range from 24-hour room service and bluetooth sound systems to Malin + Goetz bath amenities and Frette premium linens, among others.

When it debuted in 2016, it immediately caused waves in the Caribbean hotel industry, thanks to its sleek design, creative food and beverage and one of the region's top spas.

It was all good enough to take home the crown as the Caribbean's best new hotel in Caribbean Journal's Caribbean Travel Awards in 2016.

A room at Zemi Beach House.

Zemi Beach House is also offering a special “welcome back” promotion, including complimentary nights and a complimentary daily full American buffet breakfast.

For more information, visit Zemi Beach House.

QUINN