Connecting countries, cultures and cuisine, one flight at a time™

A little more than 12-miles off the coast of St. Martin, Anguilla has long been home to some the Caribbean's most beautiful and exclusive hotels. The destination of choice for the luxury travel set and occasional visiting celebrity (including Beyoncé and Jay Z, Sandra Bullock and Leonardo DiCaprio, to name a few), travelers to the eel-shaped island come back time and again for the wide range of beautiful beaches, turquoise water, incredible dining scene and, of course, the chance to be pampered with impeccable service at luxury accommodations. The fact that the island has an embargo on cruise ships makes it all the more desirable.

One of Anguilla's most stylish beachfront hotels, Zemi Beach House features a designated rum bar (and rum concierge), beautifully appointed rooms and suites, and one of the best wellness and sustainability programs on the island. Not to be missed is the chance to pamper yourself at Zemi Thai House Spa, an authentic 300-year-old structure with a hammam, mud deck and Asian-inspired treatment menu.
